The Music is stuck fast in an ice gorge The steamer Tensas left New Orleans Tuesday night for this point, but has not been heard of yet. The departure of the Ste. Genevieve, for Vicksburg, is announced for Monday. Captain James A. Yore is in command. The M'Arthur has escaped the ice troubles and is making regular trips up Black river, connecting at Jacksonport with the Ruth. An advertisement appears elsewhere, in which Captain Darragh states that the Illinois will start out for Vicksburg, Greenville and the bends next Tuesday.

We are under obligations to Local-Inspectors Gronauer and Ralston for a copy of their annual report, to be found below, and which will be of interest to our river people.

The Archie P. Green is aground in upper White river, about fifteen miles above Jacksonport, and at last accounts the ice was running down on her dangerously heavy.

In another column will be found the par ticulars of a hitch in the sale of the Cheek line steamers. Also that an order of sale has been issued in the case of Kehoe es. steamer It was observed yesterday that the floating e is very soft and easily broken, and it is hoped that the same conditions will cause the Randolph gorge to break up and dissolve beore it reaches this far down.

The Belle of Texas is advertised to leave Monday evening for Friars Point and the Captain Nat Greene on the roof, with Charley Smithers, Marlin Jones and John Burk in the office. Captain Milt Harry received dispatches yesterday stating that White river is now open to Jacksonport; that the Batesville is on way out, getting oodles of cotton. She left Jacksonport yesterday evening.
The Ruth will leave to-morrow evening for White river, and will catch up lost time so as to leave hereafter on Saturdays, her regular day. The Ruth would have left yesterday evening if tidings from White river had been Those who delighted in admiring the beauiful garb of virgin snow which adorned the face of nature a few days ago, may put in their time now in beholding the aforesaid garb in the rags and tatters of mud and slush, pay their money and take their choice.
